of successful and happy married life. As the name suggests, maximum possible points are 36. If a matching obtains less than 18 points, it is not considered good and marriage is not advisable. Apart from 36 Points, this report also considers Mangal Dosha (Manglik or Kuja Dosham) compatibility and pronounces results by combining these two important factors. Here are the points obtained for the given details:

Interpretation of Each Point

VARNA

The boy's varna is Brahmin and the girl belongs to Shudra varna. There may be some conflict in their thinking regarding her way of handling domestic affairs. While the girl would not prefer his philosophical approach towards the everyday life. So there might be lack of concord in their approaches that would cause resistance even in general endeavors. Nonetheless, the girl will put on a lot of efforts in carrying out tasks, but the boy will not find her ways intelligent in nature. It may cause friction in their opinions and result in disharmony. However this factored can be overlooked if other gunas match well.

VASYA

Vashya for boy is Keet, while the girl is associated with Manav vashya. This is a difficult coalition. The boy may regard that the girl does not cope well on certain domestic issues. In turn, she may feel that he is too bossy to be tolerated. Since the energy level of both does not match, the incompatibility ratio is high. The girl is likely to regard boy as selfish, materialistic and worldly status while the boy is likely to regard girl as lacking in ambition, practicality and common sense. There will also be fundamental difference in nature and both will be the creature of altogether different mental and emotional plane. This is not a perfect combination with respect to vashya, however if other gunas are matched well then this coalition may be taken into consideration.

TARA

The boy and the girl both belong to Sampat tara. As far as tara compatibility is concerned, this is so far the best compatible match. Both people are willing to work to make the relationship successful and also their relationship experience honesty and encouragement from each other and this is the reason they are able to put their best in their respective carriers. Since both share and communicate their desire and needs, both share an excellent bonding. The couple will enjoy good health and sound physique. Favorable results in married life are assured.

YONI

The boy comes under Vyaghra yoni and the girl belongs to Simha yoni. The natives will get on very well with each other's moods and feelings. Both are kind and generous to understand another party's view point with all patience. They can sit across the negotiation table and ward off any problem which could hamper the relationship. This alliance may bring peace and prosperity to their respective home. Physically, both are extremely compatible and enjoy themselves on this plane.

MAITRI

The boy belongs to the rasi lord Mars and the girl belongs to the Saturn's lordship. This is not regarded as a good planetary disposition. You will have strong attraction, but deep down there will be nothing common. Understanding each other's perspective will be a big problem. Differences will be the part of routine life. He will lack the commitment what she will be looking for. It will require a good amount of efforts from both the parties to sustain the relationship. However, if other gunas are matched well then this alliance may be taken into consideration.

GANA

The boy belongs to Rakshasha gan and the girl belongs to Manushya gan. This combination has not been regarded good by the sages. This combination is characterized by aggression, and over-domination. They will try to control each other will not provide enough emotional space. They will not be ready to listen and understand each other and will opt for aggressive and emotional methods to fulfil their demands. In this combination, girl should not be influenced by others and should behave natural and as herself. The boy should try to understand girl's physical and emotional needs and act accordingly.

BHAKOOT

The boy's Zodiac sign is Vrishchika and the girl comes under Kumbha sign. This is a very good combination. They will help each other to be more efficient and effective. Domestic affairs will be mutually taken care well, by both of them. They will also improve their living standard and status. Since, both are hard working individuals and appreciate each other's work quite often. Good communication and sharing of labor will make their work easier. In short, both are compatible as far as other Gunas are concerned.

NADI

The boy's nadi is Antya and the girl belongs to Aadi nadi. This is very good combination from the viewpoint of match making. Natives will ignite the spark of creativity and inspire each other in life. They will get along well. Natives will make realistic goals and work with the help of each other to achieve those goals. Both will nourish the other spiritually and mentally. And share the interests, especially in the fields of intellect pursuits like social reforms or religion etc. They will develop very good understanding of one another with the time.
